PREAMBLE

In the name of the Triune God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, Amen.

Believing in one holy catholic and apostolic Church,

Remembering the prayer of our Lord Jesus Christ that his followers may be one,

Responding to the Holy Spirit as he continues to call and gather the church,

The Evangelical Lutheran Church in Canada hereby resolves to adopt the following constitution to govern our life and witness in our country and throughout the world.

Last amended by the 2007 Convention.

ARTICLE I

Name and Incorporation

Section 1. This constitution has been passed pursuant to and is subject to the provisions of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in Canada Act and the corporate bylaws enacted pursuant to that Act.

Section 2. For purposes of this constitution and accompanying administrative bylaws the Evangelical Lutheran Church in Canada is hereby referred to as “this church.”

ARTICLE II

Confession of Faith

Section 1. This church confesses the Triune God—Father, Son and Holy Spirit—as the one true God. It proclaims the Father as Creator and Preserver; His Son, Jesus Christ, as Redeemer and Lord; and the Holy Spirit as Regenerator and Sanctifier.

Section 2. This church confesses that the gospel is the revelation of God’s saving will and grace in Jesus Christ, which he imparts through Word and Sacrament. Through these means of grace the Holy Spirit creates believers and unites them with their Lord and with one another in the fellowship of the Holy Christian Church.

Section 3. This church confesses the Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments as the inspired Word of God, through which God still speaks, and as the only source of the church’s doctrine and the authoritative standard for the faith and life of the church.

Section 4. This church subscribes to the documents of the Book of Concord of 1580 as witnesses to the way in which the Holy Scriptures have been correctly understood, explained and confessed for the sake of the gospel, namely:

- a. The Apostles’, the Nicene, and the Athanasian Creeds as the chief confessions of the Christian faith;
- b. The unaltered Augsburg Confession as its basic formulation of Christian doctrine;
- c. Luther’s Small Catechism as a clear summary of Christian doctrine;
- d. The Apology of the Augsburg Confession, Luther’s Large Catechism, the Smalcald Articles with the Treatise, and the Formula of Concord as further witnesses to the Unaltered Augsburg Confession.

ARTICLE III

Nature of the Church

Section 1. Jesus Christ is Lord of the Church. All power belongs to Him as its head. All actions of this church are to be carried out under His rule and authority.

Section 2. The Holy Spirit calls, gathers, enlightens and sanctifies the Church, which exists both as congregations gathered for worship, witness, education and service, and as an inclusive fellowship which has its own identity and integrity. Congregations find their fulfilment in the universal community of the Church, and the universal Church exists in and through congregations.

Section 3. This church derives its character and its powers both from its congregations and from its inherent nature as part of the Church universal. It regards itself as standing in the historic continuity of the communion of saints and as being an expression of that Christian fellowship in today's world.

ARTICLE IV

Mission of the Church

Section 1. The mission of this church, as an expression of the universal Church and as an instrument of the Holy Spirit, is to share the gospel of Jesus Christ with people in Canada and around the world through the proclamation of the Word and the celebration of the Sacraments and through service in Christ's name.

Section 2. In seeking to achieve its mission, this church shall:

- a. Receive, establish and maintain congregations in which the gospel is rightly preached and the Sacraments rightly administered;
- b. Admit persons to the roster of ordained ministers by ordination or transfer and be responsible for their nurture, support and discipline;
- c. Establish and maintain seminaries for the education and continuing development of ordained ministers and other church leaders;
- d. Establish and maintain, or otherwise recognize and support, schools for the education of its members and others for leadership in church and society;
- e. Establish and maintain, or otherwise recognize and support, institutions and agencies to minister to human need and in the name of Christ;
- f. Study issues in contemporary society in the light of the Word of God and respond publicly to social and moral issues as an advocate for justice and as an agent for reconciliation;
- g. Publish materials for the education and the edification of its own members and others interested in the life of the Lutheran Church;
- h. Develop the worship life of this church, providing or recommending service books and other material for congregational and personal use;

- i. Safeguard the faith and life of its congregations and ordained ministers, deciding all questions relating thereto on the basis of the Word of God and in accordance with its Confession of Faith;
- j. Establish church agencies and create regional synods for the administration of its program;
- k. Strive to unite all Lutherans within Canada in one church;
- l. Have relationships with other Lutheran church bodies and with other Christian churches for the furtherance of its mission; and
- m. Estimate the financial needs of this church, and solicit and disburse funds for its program.

ARTICLE V

Membership

Section 1. As provided in the corporate bylaws, the membership of this church consists of member congregations; baptized individuals who are members of a congregation (“baptized members”) shall exercise their privileges and responsibilities through participation in the congregation in which they are members.

Section 2. United in one Lord, one Faith and one Baptism, the members of this church are to be constant in worship and in the study of the Holy Scriptures, regularly nourishing their life in Christ in the Sacrament of the Altar, presenting their children for Holy Baptism and providing for their Christian instruction. They are called by the Spirit to lead godly lives, to promote the unity and welfare of the church in the bond of peace, to proclaim the gospel and to renounce the evil one. The commitment of each baptized member to this call is to be expressed through this church, its synods and its congregations by a life of repentance, faith, prayer and the sharing of resources.

ARTICLE VI

Congregations

Section 1. A congregation of this church is a worshipping, learning, witnessing and serving community of persons baptized in the Name of the Triune God among whom the Word is proclaimed and the Sacraments are administered according to the gospel, the corporate existence of which is recognized by this church.

Section 2. Each congregation shall operate in accordance with its constitution, owning its property, making decisions in regard to its programming, calling its pastor(s) after consulting with the bishop of the synod, and retaining authority in all other matters that have not been committed to the Evangelical Lutheran Church in Canada or its synods in this constitution or by subsequent enactments.

Section 3. After the organization of this church, reception of a congregation shall be by action of the synod on whose territory it is located. Each congregation shall, in its application for reception into this church, agree to abide loyally by the constitution, administrative bylaws and enactments of this church and those of the synod of which it becomes a part.

Section 4. Each congregation of this church shall include in its constitution or bylaws an article which prohibits corporate worship with any organization which practices the forms of religion without confessing faith in the Triune God and in Jesus Christ, the eternal and incarnated Son of God, as our only Saviour.

Section 5. Congregations shall elect the delegates who shall represent them in conventions of the synod.

Section 6. Congregations shall have the right to petition this church and its synods, according to procedures set forth in the administrative bylaws.

Section 8. Each congregation shall include in its constitution a provision that in the event of its disbanding or ceasing to exist all property—real, personal and mixed—not disposed of by it shall vest in the synod to which it belongs, its successors or assigns.

Section 9. A congregation which has ceased to exist or whose membership has so diminished in numbers as to render it impossible or impractical for such congregation to function according to its constitution and bylaws, shall after consultation with any remaining members be deemed by the synod of which it is a part to be defunct. The synod, through the synod council, shall appoint trustees, including where feasible former members of the congregation, who shall take charge and control of the property of said congregation to hold, manage and convey the same on behalf of this synod.

Section 10. A congregation, which desires to sever its relationship with this church, shall make written application to its synod for a proper release. The synod shall grant such request following the process set out in the administrative bylaws of this church.

Section 11. A synod, acting for this church, may exclude a congregation from the membership of this church for proper cause by the disciplinary process prescribed in the administrative bylaws. This action may be appealed to the Court of Adjudication whose decision therein shall be final.

Synods shall also have responsibility for recruitment, approval and supervision of all candidates for the ordained ministry.
